The Junior League of Fort Worth announces
2009 Christmas in Cowtown Holiday Gift Market Honorary Co-Chairs

The Junior League of Fort Worth is pleased to announce Nenetta Carter Tatum and George Ann Carter Bahan as the honorary co-chairs of the Junior League of Fort Worth's third annual Christmas in Cowtown holiday gift market held in October. Their long-time commitment to the Fort Worth community and to the Junior League of Fort Worth make Nenetta Tatum and her mother, George Ann Carter Bahan, the ideal honorary Co-Chairs for this year's Christmas in Cowtown.

"These two outstanding women personify the Junior League's spirit of voluntarism, and we are humbled to have them on board for this year's Christmas in Cowtown," said Laura Quenette, chair of Christmas in Cowtown.

"This exciting, unique event has become an annual holiday tradition for all of Fort Worth to enjoy," said Tatum. "My mother and I are honored to serve as its honorary co-chairs for another successful year."

The Junior League of Fort Worth third annual Christmas in Cowtown holiday gift market will be held on Thursday, October 1 through Saturday, October 3 at the Will Rogers Memorial Center. Christmas in Cowtown is the ideal venue to shop over 130 merchants from across the county showcasing home décor, jewelry, seasonal items, clothing, children's products, gourmet food and much more. This one-stop shopping experience is priceless in today's economy giving shoppers the opportunity to select unique gifts at various price points for the entire family.

Money raised through Christmas in Cowtown will help fund important community projects through the Junior League of Fort Worth. The League gives thousands of dollars and volunteers hours annually to make a difference in the community.
