President's Perspective

Welcome to the first issue of The Lariat for our 2023-2024 year! I am overjoyed to be serving as the 94th President of the Junior League of Fort Worth and working alongside 11 other incredibly talented women who make up the League's Board of Directors. It is an honor and a privilege to lead an organization with such a rich history and legacy that is made up of talented, committed, and diverse women. As we move closer to our centennial, I am amazed by all that our members have accomplished in our community. For 94 years, we have been unwavering in our commitment to our Mission – advancing women's leadership while addressing the needs of the community and, in the process, bettering ourselves and our city.

Throughout the year, our Lariat readers will have the opportunity to learn about the League's many initiatives and the various ways in which we are serving our community. We will share details of the nine projects receiving both grant funding and volunteer support this year, highlighting the incredible accomplishments achieved through these partnerships with local non-profit agencies. We will share the story of the Junior League of Fort Worth Diaper Bank, which is leading the way in addressing diaper need in Tarrant County. You will read about the incredible impact our Provisionals are making on Fort Worth ISD campuses through the Junior MINTS program. We will also highlight the fundraisers that enable us to provide meaningful and impactful financial support to the Fort Worth community. We kicked off our fundraising efforts with Christmas in Cowtown Holiday Gift Market, and coming up quickly in January 2024 is Grand Entry Gala, where we invite you to dust off your boots and join us as we mark the beginning of Rodeo season.

We will also highlight our women: the Provisionals, Actives, and Sustainers that make up the nearly 2,000 members of the Junior League of Fort Worth, the eighth largest Junior League in the world.

I hope that as you read through the pages of this publication, you will share in the pride I feel for the impact the Junior League of Fort Worth has in our community. I believe the League will continue to build on a legacy of impacting positive change because we welcome all women who value our Mission and strive to further our vision for Fort Worth. We will continue to foster an inclusive environment that empowers and supports our members as well as the community at large, ensuring that the League's impact on Fort Worth will endure for years to come.

Joyfully yours,

Robin Greenhaw

ACH and JLFW: Eight Years of Partnership

By Katie Matson

ACH Child and Family Services (ACH) and the Junior League of Fort Worth (JLFW) are entering their eighth year of partnership, and League volunteers are excited to continue serving ACH's families to foster safety, hope, and love.

ACH Child and Family Services provides a range of services aimed at assisting children, youth, and families in overcoming various life challenges. These challenges encompass a wide spectrum, including, but not limited to, issues such as death, divorce, physical and mental illnesses, addiction, homelessness, abuse, and juvenile offenses. ACH's comprehensive services include crisis intervention, foster care, adoption, family support, residential programs, and community-based care, all designed to address the diverse needs of individuals and families facing these difficulties.

JLFW members will serve in the Robert and Jane Ferguson Residential Treatment Center (RTC) to support foster youth with behavioral and mental health challenges. Established in 2019, the RTC is the only one of its kind in Texas. Teens who suffer from neglect, trauma, abuse, and loss receive healing support through ACH Child and Family Services' skilled treatment teams.

On Tuesday nights from September through May, League volunteers will engage in games, gardening, crafting, and themed nights to create joy for those in treatment. Allison Davis, ACH Project Development Chair, and her team are eager to begin serving in their roles. "Our group is really excited to meet the teenagers, build relationships, and make positive memories." Members will also focus on creating a yearbook to document events and memories from the year.

Join us in wishing Erin Rodriguez, Jewel St. Louis, Kendall Shirey, and Allison Davis a wonderful year as they find joy in their service to ACH.

For more information about ACH Child and Family Services and the RTC, please visit achservices.org/programs/rtc/.

Meet the D&I Committee

By Madeline Hunt

This year, our committee is looking forward to a year full of growth."

Committee members are excited for the year ahead. • Glenda works at DFW Airport as an Innovation Consultant and Realtor. She hails from California and enjoys running with her family. • Tishara "TJ" Shaw, Assistant Chair, co-founded Intentional Hearts Counseling & Consulting. She is a native Texan, and lives in Everman with her husband, Terrell, and two dogs. She loves all things Marvel related, anime, and swimming. • Lindsay Tooker is a stay-at-home mom as well as an Independent Fundraising Consultant. She is from Kennedale, and enjoys reading, camping, and gaming. • Mya Byrd is an accountant who owns Trinity Tax Services, LLC. She enjoys going on hikes, reading, and collecting and reselling books.

The committee values any thoughts or topic suggestions you may have. You can reach out to them at dandi@juniorleaguefw.org.

STATEMENT ON DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

The Junior League of Fort Worth welcomes all women who value our Mission. We are committed to inclusive environments of diverse individuals, organizations, and communities.

The Association of Junior Leagues International condemns discrimination, racism, and racial injustice in our communities and in our Junior Leagues. Black women and other women of color have been systemically denied equity and inclusion in our economy, education, civic privileges, and responsibilities in the voluntary sector, including in the Junior League. As affirmed by our member Junior Leagues, we are accelerating our efforts to take action and advance definitive, measurable policies and practices that eliminate racism in our countries, our communities, and our Junior Leagues. When we do this, we unlock tremendous power for our communities and realize our vision of women around the world as catalysts for lasting change.

50 Years of Mayfest Fun

By Libby Maness

THIS YEAR, MAYFEST celebrated 50 years of being the “biggest party in Fort Worth.” At its core, Mayfest is everything people love about Fort Worth: local musicians; home-grown business owners selling their products; food trucks with diverse cuisine; and families enjoying time together. The four-day event happens in Trinity Park each year.

Since its inception, Trinity Collaborative Inc., the 501(c)(3) that produces Mayfest, has contributed more than $7.5 million into the Fort Worth community. Originally a collaboration between the Junior League of Fort Worth (JLFW), Streams and Valleys, the City of Fort Worth, and the Tarrant Regional Water District, Mayfest began in 1973 as a way to celebrate the revitalization of the Trinity River and surrounding parks after a devastating flood in 1949.

This year’s festival dazzled with seven stages, more than 150 tents, and 135 vendors, all spanning 33 acres. While Mayfest is beautifully planned and executed by Trinity Collaborative, Inc., it’s the volunteers who make a difference during the event, and JLFW Members have been there since the very beginning.

Despite the heat, JLFW volunteers showed up and helped however they could to make the event a success.

“Seeing everyone walk around and enjoy the weekend with their families is so rewarding.”

— Megan Quirk

This year’s Mayfest mascot was even brought to life by a JLFW volunteer.

“It’s so fun to work alongside like-minded ladies who don’t mind getting their hands dirty and sweating – a lot – to give back to our community,” said Megan Quirk, Mayfest Central Committee Team Lead for 2022-2023.

“Seeing everyone walk around and enjoy the weekend with their families is so rewarding.”

The Mayfest team is already hard at work planning the 2024 festival. While they can’t share details yet, they know next year’s event will be one to remember. Start crossing your fingers now for good weather!

Welcoming the 2023-2024 Provisional Class

By Lauren Nixon

THE JUNIOR LEAGUE OF FORT WORTH (JLFW) proudly welcomes the 2023-2024 Provisional Class. These 141 women, who comprise our largest ever Provisional class, bring an abundance of experience, energy, and gifts that will benefit our community.

As Provisional Assistant Co-Chairs in 2022-2023, Sarah Barrera and Timesha Brown invested in recruitment, visiting networking events hosted by groups such as local chambers of commerce and women’s business and military organizations. This year, as Provisional Co-Chairs, they credited this investment with a record-setting number of applications and acceptances, and the enthusiasm of the Provisional Class.

During the May Provisional retreat, the women heard inspiring messages from JLFW Board Members and learned more about the obligations that will shape their year. Provisional leadership made a change this year, holding the retreat before the May General Membership Meeting, which helped the Provisional Members better understand and feel more welcome at their first all-Member event. This year, in addition to Junior MINTS, Provisional Members will assist with the Paint a Playground program and execute a philanthropy event in support of the JLFW Diaper Bank.

Barrera and Barrera carefully designed the curriculum that will take the women through their Provisional year. Each Provisional meeting will highlight community partners, League placements, and personal development topics. They will also recognize the Provisional leadership team with new Advisor of the Month and Advisor of the Year awards. As a former Advisor, Brown said she is very excited to celebrate the hard work of this important group who help the Provisional members succeed.

Barrera reflected on her time in the League, including placements she has completed and friendships she has made. “I think that’s what I’m most excited about – for these women to embark on that journey.” We wish the 2023-2024 JLFW Provisional Class the best as they jump into their first League year.

TAFB Junior MINTS School Pantry Project

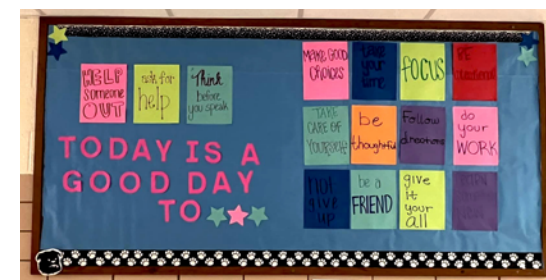

By Madeline Hunt

2023 MARKS THE TENTH YEAR of the Junior League of Fort Worth (JLFW) Junior MINTS program. Lesley Shaver, FWISD liaison, said, "We are thrilled that we have had the chance to grow and evolve to meet the needs of FWISD schools and our league volunteers." The MINTS program will serve seven FWISD campuses this year, a major increase from just two in 2013. These include: Atwood McDonald Elementary School, Daggett Middle School, DeZavala Elementary School, Eastern Hills Elementary School, Maudrie M. Walton Elementary School, Western Hills Elementary School, and Young Women's Leadership Academy (YWLA).

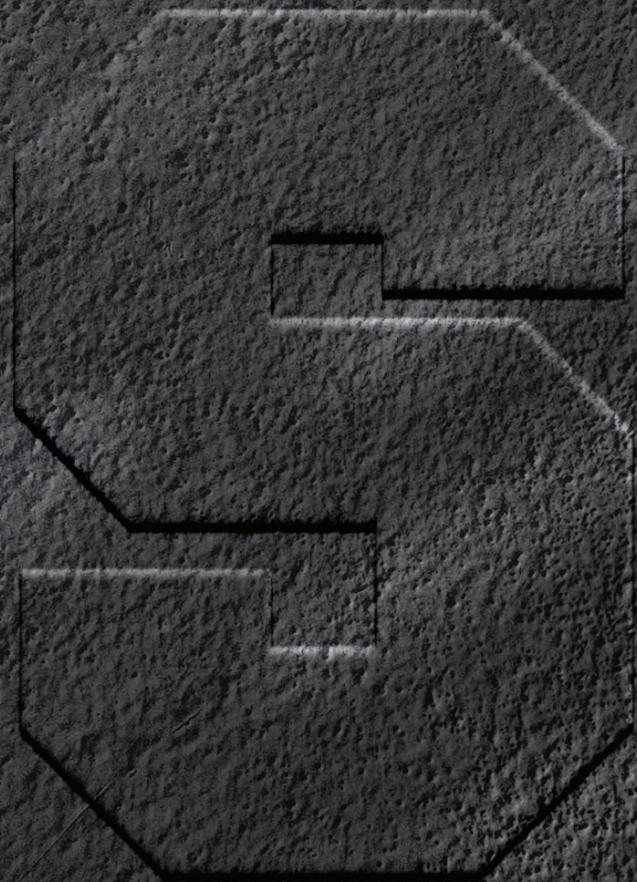

Lesley is passionate about the MINTS program because, "Without our volunteers and MINTS budget, many of these schools would go without the things that make school pretty and memorable – fun bulletin boards and murals, family events such as father-daughter dances, author visits, and field trips." Thanks to volunteers, chaperones for these events can be coordinated when parents are unable to make it.

Last year, Provisionals updated the mural in Atwood McDonald Elementary's gym. The school underwent a mascot change nine years ago, and the mural needed a refresh. Over the summer, Monica Grace, Junior MINTS School Coordinator, met with the principal and sketched out a rough draft of what the project would look like. Through the hard work of MINTS volunteers, the space was transformed and will have a lasting impact on the school building. Lesley says projects like these are the reason she hopes Active Members will come back to volunteer with the program. It is important to note that there are weekend and evening opportunities for those that cannot make normal business hours work.

Sustaining Joys

By Ashleigh Herron

Being a Sustaining Member is a wonderful way to continue service to the community and fellowship among friends.

FEW THINGS IN LIFE provide the kind of joy that true friendship does. One of the unique experiences that comes from the Junior League of Fort Worth is the lifelong bonds formed between women working toward a common goal. Peggy Sims, Sustainer Chair, notes the "beauty of it" is the many friends she has made over the years. She even visits the Junior League office to dive into old issues of The Corral (now The Lariat) to document articles and photos to share on the Sustainer Facebook page. These walks down memory lane are so much fun and a wonderful reminder of the many incredible women who have made an impact in Fort Worth and the League.

The Junior League of Fort Worth boasts the largest dues-paying group of Sustainers in AJLI. Becoming a part of these nearly 1,200 women is truly an honor. Being a Sustaining Member is a wonderful way to continue service to the community and fellowship among friends, and the programming provides an easy transition and an introduction to the many activities the group provides throughout the year. From annual socials held in the fall and spring to the Day Book Club and quarterly birthday celebrations, this group knows how to have fun! Sustainer events and information can be found in the Member section of Digital Cheetah.

For more information on continuing your JLFW journey as a Sustainer, please contact Peggy Sims, at posims2002@outlook.com.

Little Leaguers Lend Helping Hands

By Katie Matson

AS THE LITTLE LEAGUERS PROGRAM enters its third year, Co-Chair Jessica Walsh is thrilled to engage more members and their “littles” in our community. Little Leaguers was the brainchild of Past President Elizabeth Knuckley, and many children, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and neighbors of Members have participated in programming.

Little Leaguers have been hard at work this League year, already visiting The Ronald McDonald House of Fort Worth to learn more about their mission and provide a meal to families staying there. Little Leaguers were excited to see how their help impacted many RMHFW residents after a long day at the hospital.

In September, Little Leaguers met at Headquarters, in partnership with Christmas in Cowtown and the Diaper Bank. Attendees arrived with diaper donations in hand, 3,000 to be exact, to honor National Diaper Need Awareness Week (Sept. 18-24, 2023).

Spirited hands also helped decorate ornaments for the Diaper Bank tree at Christmas in Cowtown.

Looking ahead, Jessica and fellow Co-Chair, Corrine Quast, have more events planned. Jessica says, “Our goal is to teach these Little Leaguers the importance of giving back to our community at a young age.”

For information on upcoming Little Leaguers events, visit your Member homepage.

The Joy of Giving

Meet the New Board of Directors

By Libby Maness

EACH JUNE, a group of determined, service-driven women come together as the Junior League of Fort Worth's new Board of Directors. Led by Robin Greenhaw as President, these women bring their ideas, experience, passion, and leadership skills to gracefully lead Junior League of Fort Worth (JLFW) through a year of service.

These women embody what it means to be a woman of the League through their countless volunteer hours and tireless commitment to making the Fort Worth community a better place. Now that they've stepped into the role they will oversee the organization's activities, assets and operations.

Beyond mere administration, the Board is tasked with maintaining the spirit of the JLFW's overall Mission and Vision, and this year's theme – Joy of Giving. "As I brainstormed ideas for a theme for the year, I kept circling back to how much joy it brings me to volunteer, to give back to others, to pour into other leaders and to help make a difference in our community," Greenhaw said.

Despite the negativity in the news today, she believes that finding the joy in service serves as a reminder of the positivity the members of Junior League bring to Fort Worth.

This motto also serves to remind our Members of the reasons we joined the League in the first place.

"As much as we give to our community, we get back so much more in the form of joy," Greenhaw said.

She's looking forward to living out this year's theme with the talented and dynamic group of women serving on the Board of Directors. Each of them gives so much to the League, all while balancing careers, families, and other obligations. She knows members will be inspired by their servant leadership and their Joy of Giving.

2023-2024 President

Robin Greenhaw is this year's President. Hailing from Hammond, LA, Robin moved to Texas to attend Texas A&M University and graduated with degrees in accounting and finance. After living in Dallas and New York City, she landed in Fort Worth as a result of a work relocation. In Fort Worth, she met her now husband, Pete, through mutual friends. Robin and Pete have two children, Pierce (8) and Poppy (6), and a West Highland Terrier named Piper. It's fitting that Robin is serving as this year's League President as this is her tenth anniversary as a member. "My favorite placement has been Diaper Bank Co-Chair; I loved seeing the direct impact our League made on so many individuals and families. As a mother, the community's diaper need struck a nerve. It was so fulfilling to be able to help others by providing them with basic essentials to keep their children healthy." When asked what her favorite part of our League is, she says, "I am constantly awed by the commitment of our members and seeing their willingness to give their time and talents to others."

ASHLEY HANSEN

2023-2024 Community Vice President

Ashley Hansen is this year's Community Vice President. Originally from Keller, TX, she didn't travel far to attend Texas Christian University. While there, she met her husband, Thomas, who was attending Texas Wesleyan University. Together they have a son, Oliver (4), and two dogs, Lily (5) and Thor (1). Ashley joined the League in 2009, and she particularly enjoyed her placement as Little Leaguers Co-Chair: "It's so crucial that we instill the importance of giving back in our children at an early age. It is important to teach them they don't have to wait to do great things – that's exactly what this program does."

SATOYA WILLIAMS

2023-2024 Education Vice President

Satoya Williams is this year's Education Vice President. Satoya is originally from Navasota, TX, and is happy to be in Fort Worth. Her Provisional year in the League, 2013, still holds a special place in her heart: "My provisional year was my favorite! It laid a great foundation for my League experience and sparked my interest in the fight against human trafficking." Satoya believes that the Junior League of Fort Worth is unique because it intends to train and develop women. "The lifelong friendships I've developed and our impact on the community have been so rewarding. I hope each member can experience this in some way."

A Beloved Tradition

By Lauren Nixon

THE JUNIOR LEAGUE OF FORT WORTH was built on tradition, and one of the most beloved, Christmas in Cowtown, returned October 12-15, 2023. Shoppers flocked to Will Rogers Memorial Center in the Amon G. Carter, Jr. Exhibits Hall to check off items on their holiday shopping lists while supporting agencies that impact women, children, and families in our community. Approximately 250 merchants came from all over the country, and Christmas in Cowtown Co-Chairs Amanda Patyk and Kendall Riddell were especially excited to showcase Fort Worth's home-grown talent during the Market. Both the Preview Party and Private Shopping Experience featured catering from Magdalena's and entertainment from local musicians.

Guests at this year's Market enjoyed decorations in a southern holiday theme that incorporated traditional elements of the Christmas season. Blue and white ginger jars, greenery, and red bows served as the aesthetic inspiration. Patyk and Riddell shaped this year's theme with a nod to Sustaining Advisor and Christmas in Cowtown inaugural Co-Chair, Sandra Tuomey.

"We really wanted to bring to the forefront the tradition and elegance that Christmas in Cowtown was founded on," Patyk said. Patyk and Riddell are greatly appreciative of the CIC committee and the more than 500 volunteers whose hard work made this year's Market a success. "It's neat to see the collective effort that comes together in order to get this off the ground. Each year it is consistently the largest fundraiser for the League, raising more than $7 million over the last 16 years," Riddell shared. Look for photos from the Market in the next issue of the Lariat!
